Graduate Presents Recital.

Graduation recital by Miss Anna Peterson, student with Arvid Samuelson, head of Augustana conservatory of music, took place at the college chapel last night. Professor Samuelson assisted with orchestral parts in one of the renditions, Tchaikovsky's concerto, B flat minor. Miss Peterson displays much musical talent and ability and played the program with artistry. The following program was rendered:

Prelude, B flat minor, Ravel
Sonata Appassionata, Beethoven
Nocturne, Chopin
"Folie of the Waters", Ravel
Concerto, B flat minor, Op. 23, Tchaikovsky
Miss Esther Peterson, soprano, and Miss Edna Underholmes, pianist, appeared in undergraduate recital this afternoon. Miss Ruth Carlmark, pianist, will appear in graduate recital, Tuesday night.

Cast of Franklin Operetta.

The operetta, "Love, Lilies of Hawaii", to be presented at the Franklin school auditorium by the pupils of the departmental school tomorrow and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock has a large cast of characters. There will be special music by the school orchestra and there will be specialties between the acts. The cast of characters is as follows:

Pirates—Carl Johnson, Lewis Moore, Floyd Stromberg, Edgar Laden, Leroy Rahn, Kenneth Pfenninger, Isadore Katz, Joe Isleck.
There will also be a chorus of about thirty voices.

The proceeds of the entertainment are to be used to pay for a curtain for the auditorium stage.

O'Hare-Reeves.

Miss Ellice A. Reeves and Russell P. O'Hare were married at 5 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Dean H. P. Durkin reading the nuptial mass. Announcement of the nuptials will come as a happy surprise to the many friends of both young people. Only a few of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred O'Hare, brother and sister-in-law of the groom, attended the couple.

The bride wore a suit of dark blue and dainty white georgette, crepe blouse, and she wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. Her attendant wore a brown suit with blouse and hat to match. Her flowers were pink roses. Miss Susan Meekins, organist at St. Joseph's church, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, and as a recessional she played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. O'Hare left for Chicago where they will spend a 10 days' honeymoon. They will return to Rock Island before leaving for their new home, which will be out of the city.

Mrs. O'Hare has lived in Rock Island all her life. She attended the Villa de Chantal and for the past few years has been employed at the Modern Women's publication building, in the bookkeeping department. Since her girlhood she has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stroehle, 1010 Sixteenth street.

Mr. O'Hare who is the son of Charles P. O'Hare, 428 Eleventh street, served during the past year in the navy, being stationed at the Great Lakes naval training station. He was recently discharged. He is employed as a traveling salesman for the Moline Tractor company.

Mrs. Zettler Hostess.

Mrs. P. J. Zettler, 1014 Thirtieth avenue, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the Joy Embroidery club, the members spending an enjoyable afternoon with their fancy work, chatting and listening to victrola music. Late in the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room where the table was pretty with its decorations of spring flowers.

The club will be entertained next time by Mrs. Lien Answorth, at her home 1751 Fourteenth avenue, Moline.

Hostess To Bible Classes.

The Loyal Sons and Loyal Daughters of the Second Christian church held a joint meeting last evening at the home of Miss Hazel Flus, 1127 Second avenue. Separate business sessions were held at which routine business was transacted, after which the members joined in a social hour.

Refreshments were served by the hostess late in the evening. Miss Ethel Judd will entertain the two classes at her home, 502 Twenty-first avenue, May 27. The Loyal sons will hold a meeting May 20 at the home of Gerald Shaw, 542 Twenty-first avenue.

Swastika Club Meeting.

Mrs. Reuben Holman, at her home, 1090 Seventeenth street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the Swastika club. The members had brought their anywork and spent the afternoon chatting and sewing. Mrs. Laurence Hadaway and Mrs. A. D. Phillips were guests yesterday. The hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon.

yesterday. Mr. Connelly has lived in Rock Island for a number of years. He is employed as an engineer on the Rock Island road, running between Chicago and Rock Island. The new home will be in Chicago.

Board Holds Meeting.

The newly elected executive board of the Young People's society of the First United Presbyterian church met last evening at the home of Miss Mildred Warnock, 423 Second street. Plans for the work of the coming year were mapped out and committees were appointed. The matter of the deservient convention which is to be held in Rock Island June 24 was brought up. The first church society is to give a pageant at the evening session of the convention. It is expected that some 50 delegates from this presbytery will be in attendance at the two sessions, together with large delegations from the local churches.

Cambridge Girl To Wed.

Miss Eva Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of Cambridge, and Leon J. Wells, son of Mrs. W. D. Wells of 1718 Park avenue, Davenport, will be married in June. The wedding will take place in Cambridge at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Wells is a well known Davenport boy, a graduate of the high school and Iowa college. Ames, and he has been stationed at Camp Humphrey, Va., until recently. He is now a draftsman with the Aluminum Casting company of Cleveland, Ohio, and the new home after the wedding will be in Cleveland.

Juniors Have Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Junior Missionary society of the Oak Grove United Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church. Miss Muriel McMillan was the leader yesterday, and Miss Elizabeth McMillan, the superintendent, took part in the meeting.

Large Number Join Class.

Some fifty couples attended the dancing class at the Community league rooms last evening. There was an unusually large number of young men present last evening, both soldiers and civilians. There is room for still more in the class and anyone who has not yet started in the course and who wishes to take the instruction in social dancing is invited to join next Tuesday. The instructor is Miss Marian Clark.

Queen Esther Guild Meets.

The Queen Esther guild of the First Methodist church entertained last evening at the home of Miss Jessie Embry, 901 Twenty-second street, when business was transacted and plans were made to raise funds which are to be sent in support of some mission cause. Candy will be sold as a means of making money, and at the next meeting each member will pay her yearly dues. The guild has not had a meeting for some time, but from now on they will meet regularly. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Stella Darling, at her home, 940 Ninth street, which will entertain the guild May 27.

Five Numbers on Course.

Five numbers are to be given next winter on the lyceum course to be sponsored by the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church. This year's course closed with Monday evening's program. The dates for the numbers next year have not been set, but will be arranged early next winter.

The Suwanee quartet, which will put on a program of southern songs and readings has been booked for the course. Another number will be the Frederick Musical company, and Mrs. Chilton, an impersonator, will read "Polly of the Circus," impersonating the characters. The Chicago Recital company, and J. S. Damron, a potter, will complete the course.

Each number promises to be a feature, and is of a different nature from those presented this year.

Hiebel-Paluke.

Miss Sophia Paluke of this city and Ralph W. Hiebel of Davenport were married at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The ceremony was performed by Dean H. P. Durkin. The couple was unattended.

Change Meeting Place.

Owing to a recent bereavement in the family Mrs. J. F. Robinson is unable to entertain the student department of the Rock Island Musical club Saturday afternoon. The meeting will be held instead at the home of Mrs. J. F. Robinson.

CONTRACTORS ARE URGED TO RENDER CLAIMS EXPECTED

Contractors having claims against the war department because of the suspension or cancellation of contracts, whether formal or informal, are requested in a notice sent out by the department, to submit their claims at once in order that adjustments may be made by the local boards which are to be disbanded after May 15.

Adjustments after that date will be made by other than local boards, which were formulated for the duration of the war and from the ranks of civilians of the country.

AGED WOOPER TOO COOL: GIRL SEEKS BIG HEART BALM

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 30.—The fire and ardor of the youthful swain was lacking when Henry Dennison, aged recluse and Swissvale millionaire, proposed to her, according to Miss Nettie Richardson, who is suing him for $500,000 heart balm, this being the fourth time the case has been on trial. Miss Richardson admitted the aged lover never had held her hand, never embraced her, never kissed her, and, when he proposed to her, they were sitting several feet apart.
